COMMUNITY MEMBERSHIP

Thank you for your interest in community membership in the James A. Blumenthal Library. Your support and generosity is helping the library and we hope you enjoy being a part of the growing Maitripa College community.

Maitripa College currently holds over 5,000 titles. Based on strategic development plans developed in consultation with librarians and internationally respected professors of Buddhist studies and related fields, we are building our print and digital collections and information resources. Our aim is to create a lending and research facility that will meet the highest standards of electronic, archival, and print resources for the use of our students, faculty, and local community for many years to come.
