This schedule describes the anticipated course offerings at Maitripa College in fall 2020. Maitripa College is committed to periodic review and revision of curricula and does not guarantee all courses will be offered as listed. Maitripa College's minimum enrollment policy is designed to ensure ongoing curricular effectiveness and the efficient use of resources through program planning: Registration is reviewed prior to term start and under-enrolled courses may be cancelled. Individual students' course of study will vary according to language studies, pace of study, and elective options, and course enrollment should be done in consultation with their academic advisor to ensure timely progress towards graduation.
